

We are Hiring for Summer 2019!

Summer jobs are more than about making money, they are about laying a foundation for the future.

By having Wilderness Voyageurs on your resume, future employers will know you worked for an industry leader who demands hard work and superior customer service. You will be tapped into a network of people who have branched out into every field imaginable. We have nurses, welders, teachers, doctors, robotic engineers, psychologists, general contractors, soldiers, cyber security experts, marketing execs, plumbers, professional ski bums, etc. located all across the world. And, if the recreation field is your thing, then you will be hard pressed to find a better place to get your foot in the door. Between our wide offering of services and our expansive contacts in the industry we are the doorway to a whole other world of opportunities. Contact Ben Scoville at 1-800-272-4141 with any questions. Otherwise...
